

6. National Science Day 2022 was celebrated by VECC, Kolkata, on March 01, 2022. (Online mode). The theme of this year was integrated approach in science and technology for a sustainable future. Around 50 Students participated in the online program on WEBEX platform from all over the country. Dr. Amit Roy, former director, IUAC Delhi, delivered a popular lecture. The students also participated in the debate competition on the topic “Technology, rather than science will drive to sustainable future”.

